Message from the President H.K.L.B.A.

K.G. Wallis CPM
President
HKLBA

The past year, a most significant one in the history of Hong Kong, has again been a very full one for us, particularly in terms of international competition. Not only have Hong Kong been overseas to Malaysia, Zimbabwe and Australia, but Malaysia have also been here and November once again saw the Classic.

The work of the Association, with that of the Ladies is considerable and Amy, our Sports Executive has now put in a full year at the office along with Sally as her Assistant.

Whilst Shatin has continued to thrive, Taipo has not come on stream as soon as we had thought and it now looks as though it will be some time before we are playing there. There is, however good news that Victoria Park is being reprovisioned which I think most people will be happy to hear.

The Classic was a great success again this year and was held in glorious weather. Our sincere thanks to the SDB and Manulife Funds Direct for their tremendous support and the indication from the latter that they will be willing to continue in the coming year. They also support the National Leagues and several National Championships and we are extremely grateful to them.

Once again we held our Indoor Singles Qualifier for the World Indoor Championships and thanks once again to HKFC for use of their wonderful facility. They and CCC also saved the Test Series with Malaysia in July when heavy rain saw all outdoor greens unplayable.

With this evening's conclusion, we can look forward to a further busy year of competition and progress in development. Hopefully, with the cooperation of all bowlers, and with the continued assistance of the Municipal Councils, the Association can spread the word on our sport and bring more and more people into the game.

In conclusion, may I congratulate all prize winners and wish everyone a very pleasant evening and successful season of bowls ahead.

K.G. Wallis
President
HKLBA

Message from the President H.K.L.L.B.A.

Esther Mak
President
HKLLBA

Once again, I welcome you all to this evening's Joint Prize Presentation Dinner.

1997 was not just a special year for Hong Kong, but an eventful and successful one for both Associations and all bowlers around.

In November, our Hong Kong China Ladies' Team took part in the 7th Asia Pacific Bowls Championships in Sydney and won one bronze medal in the Triples and almost another in the Singles. I am sure you all would join me to congratulate and thank the Team and its Manageress, Mr. Rita Chan, for their efforts and endeavours in this tournament. On behalf of the LLBA, I should like to congratulate also the men's team in winning two bronze medals, one in the Singles and one in the Pairs. Well done, men!

For the third time, we have been invited by the World Indoor Bowls Council to send a representative for the 1998 World Indoor Ladies Singles to be held in Wales again this year. Mrs. Linda Smith has qualified as our representative and I wish her the best of luck in this April adventure. Thanks to the Hong Kong Football Club for allowing us to use their indoor green for the qualifying competition and compliments to the working committee in organizing the event.

Congratulations to the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association for another successful Classic Tournament in 1997 - a highlight of the bowling year here in Hong Kong. Well done!

I am happy to say that our representatives to the 6th World Blind Bowls Championships came home with 4 bronze medals, in both the men's and women's singles, which resulted in a special Incentive Award for them from the ASF & OC. We owe our thanks to all coaches and helpers for their time and effort in training the bowlers and all those clubs for their generous permission to use their greens for practices.

My congratulations to all winners of this year's league and national competitions and a special thank you to all clubs which provided the facilities for our games and meetings.

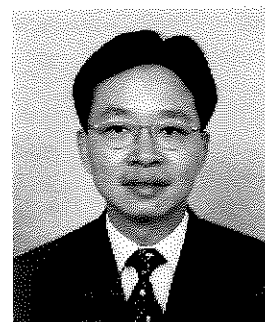

Lastly, I like to thank all officers, members of the general committee and the various sub-committees for their support and cooperation in the past twelve months. My special thanks to Ms. Amy Mok, the Sports Executive, and her Assistant, Ms. Sally Wan, for their hard work and dedication in ensuring smooth operation of both Associations.

Before closing, I would like you all to join me in paying special tribute to Mrs. Jo Hollis, our Founder Secretary, who passed away last August. Her past contribution and devotion to the LLBA will be sadly missed.

I now wish you all a pleasant evening, good health and every success in the years ahead.

Esther Mak
President, LLBA

Report of the Hon. Secretary H.K.L.B.A.

W. S. Chan
Hon. Secretary
HKLBA

The year 1997 has again been another busy and successful one for the Association. There were the usual keenly contested Leagues and National Championships, the Hong Kong International Bowls Classic, and several events on the international front.

The Association were fortunate that the major sponsor for the Classic 1996, Manulife Funds Direct, continued with their support in 1997. Thanks must go to Brian Poynton and John Lunn for their efforts in securing this sponsorship from Manulife Funds Direct in early 1997. This together with the continuous support of other major sponsors Craigenpower Cricket Club and Kowloon Bowling Green Club and the annual subsidy from the Hong Kong Sports Development Board enabled us to go ahead with confidence. A full report on the Classic can be found elsewhere in this Year Book.

On the international front, Hong Kong China took part in the Asia-Pacific Championships 1997 in Australia, the Triangular Test Series in Zimbabwe and a Test Series with Malaysia here in Hong Kong, whilst Hong Kong competed in a 4-Nation Tournament in Malaysia. Reports on all of these events appear elsewhere in this publication.

The National Summer and Winter Leagues continued to be organised by the National League Panel and thanks are extended to the Panel and their Chairman, Brian Poynton for their very efficient organisation and the collating of results for circulation to the press and member Clubs. The National Leagues are also sponsored by Manulife Funds Direct. In 1997, the number of teams increased by one to 45 from 19 clubs in the Summer League, whilst the Winter League saw an increase of 3 to 38. Congratulations to the respective winners :-

Summer League	Division 1	HKP "A"
	Division 2	IRC "A"
	Division 3	GLBC "A"
	Division 4	HKFC "D"
	Division 5	GLBC "B"

Winter League	Division 1	FC "A"
	Division 2
	Division 3
	Division 4

The National Championships were organised by the National Championship Panel under the Chairmanship of Pat Chan and thanks go to him and his Panel for the smooth running of the events. Five major National Championships are also sponsored by Manulife Funds Direct.

Coaching courses run in conjunction with the Provisional Urban and Regional Councils continue to be well supported by the public. Special fun days, competitions and short mat games are also organised to increase the popularity of the sport. As always, thanks go to Noorie Razack and his team of coaches for all their hard work throughout the year.

In conclusion, I would like to thank our Sports Executive, Ms. Amy Mok and Administrative Assistant, Ms. Sally Wan, who started work with the Association during the year. They have brought a great deal of enthusiasm to the office, improving the administration and seeing a welcome reduction in my workload with the Association.

Report of the Hon. Secretary H.K.L.L.B.A.

Mrs. Jacqueline Chan
Hon. Secretary
HKLLBA

The past year has been another busy and successful one for the Association. Sixteen Clubs participated in the usual keenly contested League and National Championships. A total of 37 Teams entered the Summer League and 29 in the Winter League.

Congratulations are due to all who took part in the two Leagues, and, in particular, the eventual winners. Our special thanks go to Elisa Cheung and her Sub-Committee of L.Y. Cheng, Connie Wong, Angela Chau and Phyllis Kwan for their hard work in running the Leagues and compiling the standings.

Congratulations are also extended to all the finalists and winners in the National Championships and thanks are extended to Jennifer Luk and her Sub-Committee of Pauline Lam, Margaret Adcock, Lena Yeung and Rita Chan for their efficient organization of the schedule.

On the international front, our ladies took part in the 7th Asia-Pacific Bowls Championships in Australia. They returned with a Bronze medal in the Triples and finished 4th overall, a very creditable result. A report of the event can be found elsewhere in this Year Book.

Furthermore, a ladies team took part in a 4-Nation Tournament in Malaysia in April and, again, a report can be found elsewhere.

Thanks are also extended to Lena Yeung and her helpers for their invaluable time and effort put into the training and organization of the handicapped bowlers.

As always, our thanks are due to the HKLBA, and all Clubs and their representatives for their continued support and cooperation.

Finally, the Association would like to pay sincere tribute to the members of the General Committee and Sub-Committees for their hard work, and to all members of the Association for their interest and support throughout the year.

May I wish you all a happy and successful season for 1998.

Report of the Men's Manager Asia-Pacific Championships 1997

The Championships were hosted by Warilla Bowls and Recreation Club, under the auspices of Bowls Australia and the Australian Women's Bowling Council, from 19-29 November 1997. The Hong Kong China Men's Team consisted of Noel Kennedy (Singles & Pairs), Ken Wallis (Triples & Fours), Anthony Carstairs (Pairs & Fours), Tony Tong (Triples & Fours) and David Tso (Triples & Fours). David was a late replacement for Bill McMahon who withdrew due to work.

The team arrived in Sydney on 11 November for practice and acclimatisation, and was hosted by Rosehill Bowling and Recreation Club and Parramatta RSL Bowling Club to four days of concentrated bowls between 12-15 November. On 16 November, the team motored down to Windang and the Oasis Motel our base for the event and another three days of practice on the venue greens. It was plain early on that the problem at this seaside club was going to be the wind.

On 19 November, there was a brief Opening Ceremony when each of the 14 participating nations were introduced and the respective national flags raised. The format saw all nations divided into two sections with the winner of each playing off for Gold and Silver, and the runners-up playing off for Bronze.

Noel met Kelvin Kerkow of Australia in his first game, led 24-21 and lay game on a couple of occasions only to see the Australian save the match with deadly heavy shots and then go on to win 25-24. Noel won the rest of his games, finished in the runner-up spot and beat Norfolk Island in the Bronze play-off.

Anthony and Noel in the Pairs also only lost one section game, against New Zealand, the eventual Gold Medal winners, and comfortably finished runners-up to qualify for the Bronze play-off. Here they beat Canada.

In the Triples, Tony, David and Ken had a tough start with Fiji which they lost, but they followed this with some great bowls to finish in runners-up position, including a comprehensive victory over Australia. The play-off for Bronze against Singapore was played on a lightening green with excessive wind which saw the medal chances blown away. The team finished 4th overall.

The Fours started off confidently and won their first four games. However, Fiji proved the downfall once again and it needed a last game victory over New Zealand, the eventual Gold Medal Winners to clinch a place in the play-offs. This was not to be and the team finished 5th overall.

The Team finished in three play-offs, winning two Bronze Medals and taking 3rd place overall to New Zealand and Australia, a performance and result of which Hong Kong can be justly proud.

Asia-Pacific Championships 1997

The 7th Asia-Pacific Bowls Championships 1997 were hosted by the Warilla Bowls & Recreation Club Ltd., south of Sydney, Australia from Wednesday 19 November to Saturday 29 November 1997. Fourteen countries participated, namely Australia, Canada, Cook Islands, Fiji, Hong Kong China, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Norfolk Island, Papua New Guinea, Singapore, Thailand, United States and Western Samoa.

The Hong Kong China Ladies Team consisted of Linda Smith (Singles & Pairs), Lena Yeung (Triples & Fours), Angela Chau (Triples & Fours), Linda da Luz (Triples & Fours) and Stella Lo (Pairs & Fours).

The Team arrived in Sydney on 13 November and commenced six days of practice at the venue green. Accommodation was at the Oasis Motel in Windang only ten minutes drive from the venue.

The weather was hot and windy, making practice and matches difficult.

A brief opening ceremony took place on 19 November and then it was into the competition proper with two Sections of seven countries, and the winners of each section to play off for Gold and Silver. The runners-up in each section qualified to play off for Bronze.

In the Singles, Linda Smith only lost the one game to New Zealand, came second in the Section and fourth overall. The Pairs lost three games to Norfolk Island, Australia and Malaysia, came fourth in the Section and eighth overall. The Triples lost two games to Australia and Singapore, came second in the Section and won the Bronze Medal, whilst the Fours lost three games to Malaysia, New Zealand and the Cook Islands, came fourth in the Section and ninth overall.

4 th	H.K. China	5 th	Malaysia	6 th	Norfolk Island

Although the Team did not win as many medals as we had hoped, all individuals gave of their best and worked very hard as a team. Considering the fact that two of the Team were fairly new to international bowls, they played very well indeed.

The Team is extremely grateful to CCC, PSRC, POC, KCC and IRC for the use of their greens, and to the members of those clubs who assisted in the Team's practice.

Thanks are also due to Qantas Airways Limited for their generous support of discounted airfares and to the Warilla Bowls and Recreation Club Ltd. for their hospitality and kindness throughout our stay in Australia.

Lastly the Team would also like to acknowledge its indebtedness to all sponsors and especially the Hong Kong Sports Development Board for their generous support, financial or otherwise.

Report of Men's Manager Zimbabwe Triangular Series

This represented a first for Hong Kong China and an exciting prospect of competing on African soil against two very strong nations in bowls, Zimbabwe and, especially, South Africa. The event was held between 16-23 August 1997 in Harare and at Victoria Falls with each country playing each other twice, once at each venue. Pairs and Triples were played first, followed by the Singles and Fours.

The Hong Kong China Team consisted of Noel Kennedy (Singles & Pairs), Ken Wallis (Triples & Fours), Anthony Carstairs (Pairs & Fours), Tony Tong (Triples & Fours) and Bill McMahon (Triples & Fours).

The team arrived in Harare on 11 August to be met by Bill Cumming, President of the Zimbabwe Bowling Association and several of his committee members. It was then straight to the Highland Sports Club and a roll-up before being taken to our home accommodation with Bill Cumming, Mike McNeil and Kevin Heaney.

On 14-15 August, friendly matches were arranged against very good opposition from the Highland Sports Club and Mashonaland East Association, played at Alexandra Bowls Club.

The first round matches were played on 16-18 August at Harare City Bowls Club and saw Hong Kong China start off well with 3-1 wins over South Africa and Zimbabwe, dropping the Triples on each occasion. South Africa disposed of Zimbabwe 3-1 also and this left us with 12 points, South Africa with 8 and the hosts with 4.

The second phase was played at a new bowling green situated at the Elephant Hills Hotel on the border with Zambia and within sight of the spray from the wonderful Victoria Falls, surely something that everyone should see. With delays in transport, the teams arrived late at the hotel and the matches were delayed with players fighting to finish in daylight. Playing South Africa, we again lost the Triples but the Pairs had to call a halt with darkness leading 20-17 with one end to play. The following morning before Singles and Fours, the final end was played and saw South Africa do the unlikely and take a three to tie. Hong Kong China however were not to be denied and took both Singles and Fours to win 5-3.

Going into the last match between South Africa and Zimbabwe, Hong Kong China were finished with 17 points, Zimbabwe held 12 and South Africa 11 and the best result for us had to be a draw. This is exactly as it turned out with Zimbabwe finishing on 16 and South Africa, the obvious pre-event favourites on 15 points, a truly tremendous result.

Noel recorded three wins out of four, beating Neil Burkett twice to finish second in his discipline on shots. The Pairs finished top with two wins, a draw and one loss. The Triples had some good tussles and lost two matches on the final end, but finished without a win, whilst the Fours finished top of their discipline winning their first three convincingly and leading comfortably against Zimbabwe in their final match only to drop nine shots on the last two ends to lose 25-22 !

This was a wonderful tournament played against top class opposition and it was a tremendous achievement by the Hong Kong China Team to win. There is talk of another event in 1998 with England being added to make a four-nation event.

Report of Men's Manager

Four-Nation Tournament, Malaysia

Hong Kong was invited to a 4-Nation Tournament hosted by the Perak Lawn Bowls Association of Malaysia, held in Ipoh between 9 April and 16 April 1997. Apart from the host country, Brunei, Singapore and Hong Kong took part. The tournament was part of a long programme of training and experience by the Malaysians as part of their preparation for the Commonwealth Games in September 1998.

Representing Hong Kong were Noel Kennedy in the Singles, Mel Stewart and Ken Wallis in Pairs and Willie Lai, Tony Tong, Anthony Carstairs and Bill McMahon in the Fours.

The team arrived in Kuala Lumpur on 9 April and were met by Colonel Hussin of the Malaysian National Sports Council and then driven to Ipoh a few hours drive north, where we were accommodated in the Heritage Hotel.

The venue, some five minutes from the hotel consisted of two artificial greens very similar to Victoria Park, but with a truer surface and slower speed. After a day of practice, it was into the competition proper on 11 April with a brief Opening Ceremony. Order of play was to play each other twice in each discipline, with the top two teams contesting the title. Two games were played each day, starting very early in the morning and then again in the late afternoon, both to avoid the heat of the day.

In the Singles, Noel finished in top position and met Affendy of Malaysia in the Final. This proved to be a very close and exciting encounter. At 22-22 all and lying two down on the head, Noel fell short to give Affendy a chance of the match. However, he failed to reach the head and went to another head leading 24-22. Noel made him pay for the missed chance and drew three excellent shots to win the title 25-24.

The Pairs also finished in top position in the round-robin and played Malaysia in the Final.

This again proved to be a close and tough game with Hong Kong leading 15-14 and two shots on the head on the twentieth end only for the Malaysian Skip to drive the bowls off for a count of three and a 17-15 lead going into the last. Even though Ken Wallis killed the end three times, they were unable to secure the three shots needed for victory and had to settle for the Silver.

The Fours finished in second position after the round-robin and played Malaysia in the Final. The score remained tight for the first few ends before Malaysia gradually began to pull away as their Skip started running into the head with effect. Hong Kong again had to settle for Silver as the Malaysians consolidated to win 23-16.

A Gold and two Silvers was a creditable result under the circumstances and the whole team showed themselves to be fine ambassadors for their country both on the off the green.

The Team and the Association is extremely grateful to Ms. Annie Wu of the Hong Kong Soong Ching Ling Children's Foundation Ltd. for the kind sponsorship and indeed to all those who rendered us assistance in this event.

Four-Nation Tournament, Malaysia

The Tournament was hosted by the National Sports Council of Malaysia and the Bowls Federation of Malaysia at Ipoh between 9-16 April 1997. The venue was the Perak State Lawn Bowls Centre located at Ipoh City Sports Complex and consisted of two artificial greens. The four countries taking part were Hong Kong, Malaysia, Western Australia and Singapore.

The Hong Kong Team consisted of Anna Clarke (Singles), Linda da Luz & Fanny Fernandes (Pairs), Elisa Cheung, Jacqueline Chan, Songsin Tsao & Esther Mak (Fours).

Departing on 9 April, the Team arrived at Sanbang in Kuala Lumpur where we were greeted by members of the organising committee. Proceeding to Ipoh by bus, we were accommodated at the Heritage Hotel, a new hotel and in very pleasant and quiet surroundings. A welcoming reception and dinner was held in the evening with tasty Malaysian food and hospitality which was highly appreciated by all.

After a two session practice on 10 April, an opening ceremony was held on 11 April and the competition commenced at 8.30am with each discipline playing on a double round-robin basis.

The Fours played with good team spirit and maintained a good standard of performance. They remained in contention for a medal until the final game, but losing to Western Australia saw them come third in the discipline. The Pairs lost games to Malaysia and Western Australia and came third in their discipline with Linda and Fanny showing good team work and manner on the green. In the Singles, Anna did not manage to win a game but showed great spirit.

The Team would like to express their gratitude to the Hong Kong Police Officers Club and the Craigengower Cricket Club who provided facilities for practice sessions and Ms. Annie Wu and the High Performance Sports Company for their generous sponsorship.

Report of Men's Manager, Test Series vs Malaysia

The Malaysian National Men's Team visited Hong Kong between 10-19 July 1997 for a Test Series of three matches against three different teams of local players. The matches were originally scheduled for outdoor greens, but due to impossible wet conditions, all three matches went indoors to HKFC and CCC.

The format was for Pairs and Triples to be played in the morning session followed by Singles and Fours in the afternoons. The results saw Malaysia win the first match 3-1 and Hong Kong the remaining two 3-1 and 4-0 to take the series.

A Closing Dinner was held at the KCC at the end of the week and presentations made by Ken Wallis, President of the HKLBA.

Results of the matches were as follows:

The "Classic" Thrill of Hong Kong

BBC bowls commentator David Rhys Jones first visited Hong Kong two years ago to cover the Classic for The Times newspaper. He liked it so much, he returned last year. Here he gives his impressions of a unique place - and a very special tournament ...

When the overseas players arrive for the Manulife Funds Direct Classic in 1998, they will miss the almost indescribable thrill of putting down in Kai Tak - probably the most exciting airport in the world !

First impressions of Hong Kong ? (In the old Kai Tak days, that is !) Please note - admiration for the pilots threading their way between the skyscrapers comes later. The immediate, involuntary reaction of the first-time traveller is that of a customer on a white-knuckle ride in a Disneyworld theme park. Grip the edge of your seat, and stifle an hysterical scream! Bicycle clips definitely to be worn !

Even before the wheels touch the ground, there's a feeling of euphoria, which lasts, I can testify, throughout your stay in Hong Kong. The Peak Tram; the Star Ferry; the fish restaurants in Lamma; the sights - and smells - as you walk through Causeway Bay, Wan Chai, Central or Mong Kok. A day in Tai O. A day-trip out of Clearwater Bay. A ride in a tram - or in a sampan at Aberdeen Harbour. Pop into a karaoke bar. Take a ferry to Cheung Chau. Drink in Kowloon's Irish pub. Buy a Rolling Stones CD in the Temple Street market, that turns out not to be The Stones at all. It's the Hong Kong theme park !

The sensations are kept on their toes in the bowling clubs, too. Bewildered newcomers have never played in these conditions before. High-rise buildings surrounding the greens, the neon signs, the floodlights - and the police sirens that accompany the all-too-familiar cries of, "Well bowled Jim !"

Bizarre is the only word for it. You don't need drugs ! (Well, the odd glass of lager, maybe, just to get you through until you get home to Blighty and that pint of best bitter !) The drama is designed and built in to the place and the event. And you certainly stay high until you sign your temporary membership form, and depart.

My first visit was in 1996, my second last year. "Before and after", if you see what I mean. Changes ? Virtually none. The same hospitality, the same excitement, the same good bowling. It was great to see that bowls is as strong in the former Colony as it ever was. In fact, probably stronger than ever.

I understand the Classic was created to bring top level competition to Hong Kong, so that local bowlers could be inspired by world-class players - and improve their own skills by playing against them. And it works.

All the overseas stars swear that the calibre of local opposition improves year by year. Bowls is suffering a bit of a decline in some countries, but, in Hong Kong, the number of clubs is actually growing, and who knows, Drake's ancient game may spread into China before long. Gweillos were in the minority in the spectator gallery at last year's final, and I was impressed by the attention that every bowl received.

The packed stands were politely hushed during the moments of delivery, but as the bowl rolled down the rink, there was a growing murmur, and oohs and aayahs aplenty when it reached the head, and did its best or worst. Then, plenty of warm applause. And, while the spectators at our events in the United Kingdom seem to be middle-aged to old, yours are marvellously middle-aged to young !

Young is an adjective that applies to the winners of the two Classic events, too. Singles Champion Adam Jeffrey, only 26, kept the title in Australia (holder John Noonan couldn't make it last year), while Andy Wills, 28, and Stuart Airey, 27, took a Classic title back to England for the first time.

Adam Jeffrey receives his Winners Cheque from Manulife's Philip Hampden-Smith

It's a shame our game is still tarnished with an old-man's-game image in most of the countries of the world. True, old men can play bowls, and can do so pretty well. But most of the winners of the major championships these days are in their teens and twenties. It's about time that people in the media took it on board. Come on, you sports editors, and TV planners. Bowls can be modern, trendy, dramatic, even sexy ! Honest !

But what of last year's matches? In the Singles at the Craigengower Cricket Club, Noel Kennedy was the only local hope to get through to the quarter finals, after Hong Kong's Chi Chi Fernandes, Harry Thornton, Jacky Wong and Raymond Wu had all gone out in the third round.

Popular Channel Islander, David Le Marquand, played some outstanding bowls to beat Jeremy Henry, Mark Jacobsen and Stuart Airey on his way to the final, but had to give best to an awesome display of drawing from Adam Jeffrey.

In the Pairs, Adam Poynton and Bill McMahan, representing the Lawn Bowls Association, and the KBGC club's heroes, Anthony Carstairs and Noel Kennedy, got through to the last eight, but there were also some fantastic performances from the official Hong Kong pair, Tony Tong and Jackie Wong (who beat Scotland and Wales), and Kowloon Cricket Club's Jim Melbourne and Ken Wallis (who beat Australia and the Channel Islands).

David Cheung and George Chan, from Hong Kong Football Club defeated Ireland's World Outdoor Pairs Champions, Jeremy Henry and Sammy Allen, as well as New Zealand and Canada, while the Craigengower Cricket Club duo, Willie Lai and Tony Chok (whose brother Philip Chok, once reached the final of the World Indoor Singles Championship), numbered Scotland and Malaysia among their victims.

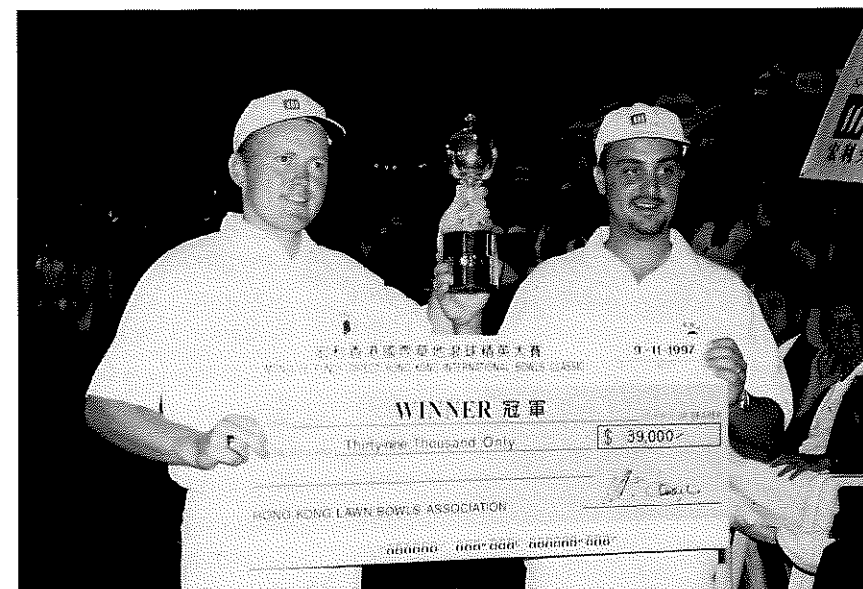

But who could forget the last group match between Channel Islands and Malaysia, when Aziz Saidun played a perfect bowl to thwart the Jersey duo - and put Wales through to the knockout stage? Or that magic quarter final between England and Scotland? And especially the ludicrous last end, when, with the scores level, the two leads, David Gourlay and Andy Wills both tried (in vain) to hammer the jack into the ditch!

When the two skips went to the mat, there was not one wood on the rink - and, after a tense, cagey duel between Stuart Airey and Graham Robertson, it went to the very last bowl, delivered by Stuart, before the result was known.

Andy and Stuart, who play at the front end of Tony Allcock's England rink in the outdoor internationals, but can not command a place in the national indoor side, went on to beat New Zealand's Bruce McNish and Brian Baldwin in the semi finals, and the proud holders, from South Africa, Gerry Baker and Neil Burkett, in the final.

So many high profile English pairs had gone before, each one tipped to take the title. But the first English victory in the Classic was achieved by two modest, compatible, but extremely popular youngsters, neither of whom was considered good enough to make England's Commonwealth Games team !

There must be a moral there somewhere !

England's Stuart Airey & Andy Wills
