LAWN BOWLS ASSOCIATION OF HONG KONG, CHINA

Message from The President

Vincent Cheung
President, LBA

Since our activities resumed normal in 2021-22, we had smoothly completed our League Competitions and National Championships in 2022-23 with great success. More importantly, we had successfully revived the Hong Kong International Bowls Classic 2023 at KBGC, KCC and CdeR with great appreciation from overseas and local bowlers.

As of our international events, it was a busy 2022-23 season for the Hong Kong Team. We sent players to almost every prestigious International Tournament. With excellent guidance of the National Coaching Team, coupled with dedication and devotion of the Squad members, some noticeable achievements were observed.

I regret for excusing myself from some major events last year due to personal health issue. In this respect, I must thank all members of the Council of Management and colleagues of the LBA Office for their understanding and support. Their efforts in running the Association matters in a smooth and efficient manner are deeply appreciated.

Last but not least, I shall congratulate all prize winners and wish all participants of this prize presentation dinner an enjoyable and memorable evening.

Vincent Cheung

Report by The Honorary Secretary

David Leung
Hon. Secretary, LBA

This is my first year on the post since I took over from David Tse of the Kowloon Bowling Green Club. On behalf of the Association, I would like to thank David for his contribution during his tenure.

2023 has been a year of resumption of activities after the pandemic, and we have faced various challenges.

The return of the Premier League and Triples League this year saw more than 5,000 players sign up for the tournament, which is very encouraging, especially after a prolonged pandemic period.

Thanks to the efforts of the National Championships Panel, a total of 32 national competitions were arranged throughout the year. The Hong Kong International Bowls Classic, which was suspended for four years, has been successfully return this year with the cooperation of the organising team and participating clubs. More than 50 players from 12 countries attended the tournament to compete with local players. Special congratulations to Jenny Miu of Tseung Kwan O Bowling Club who won the third women's singles title for Hong Kong.

Last year, we also sent Hong Kong squad to participate in a number of overseas competitions, and they came out on top and achieved great results, clinching five silver and four bronze at the Asian Championships and achieved good results at other world competitions.

In addition to participating in elite competitions, we also actively collaborate with the Leisure and Cultural Services Department to promote lawn bowls training at the grassroots level to attract and nurture novices to join the sport. In the past year, we organised 106 training courses and six fun days with more than 1,000 participants. In addition, we continued to organize umpire and coach training courses to provide sports professionals to complement and promote various activities.

In terms of the council management team, Walter Kwok stepped down as Vice President (International) and we would like to thank him for his contribution to the Association. The vacancy was also taken over by Timmy Kwong. In addition to welcoming Timmy, we would also like to welcome Edward Pang, Kung Chiu Man, Herbert Tse and Michelle Chung to join our team as councilor.

We have added three new staff members to the working team to assist in the ever-increasing number of office matters. We welcome Kasina Ho who joined us as Account Assistant in April, Stephanie Lam who joined us as Sports Executive in May and Hei Wong who joined us as Administrative Assistant in September.

Unfortunately, in the past year, we have also had two enthusiastic supporters of lawn bowls left us. They are Tony Chiu, who served as Vice President (Development) from 2005 to 2006 and Vice President (National Championships) from 2009 to 2012. And Steven Lee, who just took office as councilor on November 30 last year. Once again, I would like to thank them for their contributions to lawn bowls and the business of the Association.

Finally, we need to express our appreciation to the support of various bodies who help to make our events success, including the Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau, Leisure and Cultural Services Department, Hong Kong Sports Institute, Zhong Gang Multi-bowls Club, Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Ling Nam Medicine Factory (HK) Ltd., the Kai Tak Sports Initiative Foundation Ltd. And those sponsored the advertisement at our Classic brochure and the sponsors of the printed score card.

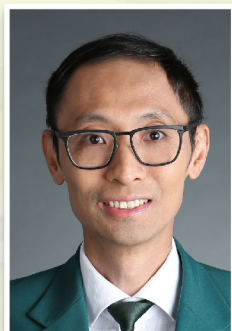

I would like to wish you all the best for your continued performance on the green and for a successful result.

VP – Technical received Commendation from the Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism

Claudius Lam, Vice President – Technical, of the Association received the Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism (SCST) Commendation for his remarkable accomplishments and contributions in promoting the development of the sport of lawn bowls over the years.

The award was presented by the Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism, Mr Kevin Yeung, at the first SCST's Commendation Scheme Presentation Ceremony in December 2023.

The Commendation Scheme was envisaged when the Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau was established in 2022, and introduced in 2023. Its vision is to inspire those with capabilities and social aspirations to contribute to building a better Hong Kong.

Classic Memories

Malaysia and Scotland won first ever pairs title at Hong Kong Classic

After an absence of four years, the Hong Kong International Bowls Classic was finally returned in November 2023.

The Hong Kong Classic was first started in 1981 when only the men's pairs was played. From then on, the event was expanded to include the men's singles and in 2008, after the amalgamation of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association and the Hong Kong Ladies Lawn Bowls Association, the women competition was introduced. It is now widely perceived as one of the best outdoor competition in the world.

In 2019, the event was cancelled due to social unrest in Hong Kong. The event from 2020 to 2022 was not arranged due to the global COVID-19 pandemic.

This year the event was returned in full scale, with singles and pairs for both genders. The competition was held at Kowloon Bowling Green Club, Kowloon Cricket Club and Club de Recreio, all on the Kowloon peninsula, from November 11 to 19. The quality of the greens was affected by the worst flash flooding affecting Hong Kong in 140 years in September and a subsequent typhoon in October, making it a bit tricky to play on.

A number of world-renowned bowlers returned and competed in the event, including World Singles Champion of Champions winner Hizlee Rais from Malaysia, Commonwealth Games gold medalist Emma Farhana Saroji and Azlina Arshad from Malaysia, World Championships singles winner Carmen Anderson from Norfolk Islands and 2023 World Championships bronze winner Selina Goddard from New Zealand.

Men's Singles

Irish claims first men's singles since 2006

The Singles is a knockout competition which involves 64 competitors, including overseas bowlers and Hong Kong's top bowlers.

In the first round, Adam McKeown (Ireland), Hizlee Rais (Malaysia), Craig Tinker (New Zealand), Rodel Labayo (Philippines) and Ronald Wong (Macau) were all knocked out by local players.

Malaysian Izzat Shameer Dzulkeple progressed to the final after defeated local player Jude Yeung from Tuen Mun Sports Association, Hong Kong international Jason Chow, Welshman Mark Harding, Indian Ruptu Gogoi and Pilipino Dimer Abatayo in the earlier rounds.

He met Mark Wilson from Ireland, who also won his first five games against Longinus Ha (Hong Kong Football Club), YY Wong (Simply Bowls Institute), Stephen Sy (HKFC), Paul Lee (Tuen Mun Sports Association) and Andrew Fleming (Wales).

Wilson has a good start in the final, opened up a gap of six shots after just three ends. Both sides exchanged a number of shots and Izzat fought back strong and at one point the deficit was cut to 7:5 in the sixth end. In the following end Wilson drew three close shots while Izzat missed his two drives. The set finished 10:7.

In the second Wilson continued his quick start approach and won five shots in the first two ends. Then he lost his drawing touch and surrendered four shots in the next end, continued with a lost of three shots in the following end.

However, Izzat's revival was short lived as he made a mistake to push the jack to the opponent with his last bowl, when he was holding a shot. Wilson scored two in this end and went on the win the set 11:9 to take the title.

Wilson is very happy to take this title at his third trial as his previous achievement in the singles was a quarter-finalist, "I was here in 2014 and 2015 and don't think I will come back again. Winning this title is amazing as this is such a wonderful place to come to. The green is tricky so you really need to play well to win. I started very well and put him on the back foot. Got in front and managed to hang on.

"I started a bit scratchy in the tournament as I need to get used to play in an outdoor game. The final is best game I played in the six rounds of games."

Wilson also said that it was a pity that the Classic need to be cancelled in the last four years, "I am glad that it is back on the bowls calendar and hope it will stay where it belongs because it is such a great tournament."

Women's Singles

Local girls shone on international stage

The women's singles was a happy hunting ground for local lady bowlers as the only two overseas players survived to the quarter-finals stage. Dee Hoggan from Scotland and Marisa Baronda of Philippines were met at this stage, which ensure that there will be at least one local lady in the final. Marisa won the tie 11:1, 8:3 and progressed to the semi-finals, where she lost to Shandy Yu from Club de Recreio 10:6, 5:8, 2:1.

The other finalist in the all-local final is Hong Kong international Jenny Miu, who played for Tseung Kwan O Bowling Club in this tournament. She defeated her Hong Kong team teammate Ada Lai and Helen Cheung en route to the final.

The final was playing on a green running at 12 seconds. The score was pretty even as both side alternating leading positions regularly. Jenny picked up five shots in the last four ends to win the first set 11:6.

In the second set Yu determined to fight back and lead the scoreboard 2:6 after just four ends. The turning point was in the sixth end when Miu was losing one in the head, she trailed the jack for a meter with her last bowl and won four shots. This ended Yu's revival and the set eventually finished 10:6.

Jenny believed that her strong mentality during adversity won her the game, "My strength is not to fell into disarray even in adversary situation. In both set I was chasing the score but I did not panic and continue to focus on my play. I kept telling myself not to be nervous because I know I have the ability to do it. My training with the Hong Kong team also helped to improve my consistence and this is the key to my success.

"This is only my second time to play in the Classic. Last time back in 2018 I was knocked out in the first round. Since then I have represented Hong Kong to play in different competitions and such experience helped me to build my confidence."

Men's Pairs

Malaysian won first men's pairs title

The Pairs is a seven days competition. Twenty-four teams of each gender was divided into two groups to play out a round robin competition. Each player will play three bowls in two sets of nine ends each. Winner of each set will award two points and additional two points will be awarded to the aggregate score winner. The top team from each group will enter the semi-finals directly, while the second and third place will meet in a play-off to fight for places in the semi-finals.

Ireland and Malaysia each won nine games in the group stage and topped their respective group. The draw for play-off grouped New Zealand with England and Wales with Scotland, who were in the same group in the round robin stage.

New Zealand and Scotland repeated the result in the group stage and progressed to the semi-finals, where they faced another opponent they met in the group stage. The New Zealand team took revenge of the earlier defeat and beat Ireland 13:5, 4:10, 3:4 to reach the final. There was no luck for Scotland who lost to a strong Malaysian team of World Singles Champion of Champions winner Hizlee Rais and silver medalist Izzat Shameer Dzulkeple 6:6, 12:3 again.

The Malaysian team played the final against the New Zealander Craig Tinker and reigning national singles winner Sheldon Bagrie-Howley on a green running at 13.5 seconds.

Filled with delicate drawings, accurate firings and several burnt ends, the final was a tight contest between the two highly skillful teams.

The first set was tied at 2:2 and 4:4. Then the Malaysian team gradually gathered momentum in the last three ends to won the set 8:4.

In the second set, the Malaysian continue the good form and opened up a lead of seven shots after three ends, and further extended it to 10:3 after five ends. The New Zealand team crawled back slowly and in the eighth end, when the score was 6:10, they hold three shots but Izzat played a heavy shot to hit the shot bowl which push the jack to his own bowl to win one shot. New Zealand took another shot in the last end to finish the set 7:11.

Izzat is particularly happy after winning the first ever gold medal in men's pairs for Malaysia, "My lead is very consistent on the drawing. Although the New Zealand skip is very good, sometimes we got the shot we need so we win the game. Like the second last end in the second set, the situation is very difficult and critical, but I played the with the result I want. Its our consistence that win us the match."

He does not think the green has much effect on the outcome, "The green is difficult but both teams are playing on the same green so we are on level term. We just manage it better so got the results."

New Zealand skipper Sheldon Bagrie-Howley admitted that the game was tough, "Not a lot was going our way in the final, we play the shots we needed to but they are just too strong for us. The green also played a little bit of the factor because our bowl are turning and they are playing with a tighter bowl so they got away with more than what we do. But probably it was a little bit of luck that is not on our side. Our aim to make the final so we are not very disappointed about the results."

Women's Pairs

Scotland won first women's pairs title in dramatic fashion

In the women pairs, England (World U25 champion Nicole Rogers and British Isles Pairs champion Harriet Stevens) and Scotland (British Singles champion Dee Hoggan and British Isles Junior Singles champion Rachel Sinclair) finished top of the group and progressed directly into the semi-finals. They defeated South Africa and Malaysia respectively in the semis to meet in the final, which was played on a cool Sunday morning on a green running at 13 seconds.

The English team started brilliantly in the final but lost dramatically in the first set.

They were winning 7:3 into the last end of the first set and held a shot after the leads finished playing. The Scottish skipper Rogers trailed the jack to hold four shots with his first bowl. She added a toucher with the second bowl and drew a not so close shot to make it six. Stevens tried to draw but cannot get close. The first set ended 7:9.

The second set is pretty even but Scotland is still dominating the game. They were winning 7:9 into the last end. The English team was holding two shots with Stevens have the last bowl to play. She drew a good shot, touch her shot bowl and fell away to the jack. Umpire was called to measure but the bowl was millimeters farther than the Scottish bowl. The second set ended 9:9 and Scotland won their first ever women's pairs title at the Classic.

Sinclair said the final is tough, "It was a tricky game and we have a tricky start. But we pull it back in the last end to win the first set. In the second set Harriet is unlucky not to get the third shot. The green is a bit tricky as it is not always going the direction you want but we still able to manage it.

"I think it was our determination that won us the final and this is the one thing I have when I played in the last end of the first set. Actually, when we woke up this morning I got a good feeling about the day."

"It is of good experience for the team because we are playing against player we normally don't have a chance to play with."

Stevens said it will hurt for a long time when losing a final in such fashion, "It is going to sting for a very long time losing the final being 7:2 up in the first set and dropping a set. The green is difficult for us as it is not we used to. In England we always play very neat bowls, we always want to nail the jack, nail the line, get perfect weight, perfect bowl, this green doesn't necessary allow you to do that every time and be consistent as what we would like. If we come out next time I think we will change to a straighter bowl to make it easier to compete."

She is still proud of the achievement though, "We are one of the English women teams to reach the pairs final and we are very pleased with how we perform given that this is the first me and Nicole played in an international event with some of the world players. It is nice to be part of the first Classic after COVID."
