Message from the President

Claudius Lam
President

It is a great honor to receive your support and allowed me to take up the role as the 15th President of the Association. As many of you know, this leadership transition was somewhat inevitable. For the past 26 years, our former President, Vincent Cheung, led the team with unwavering dedication to promote the development of lawn bowls, allowing everyone to enjoy the sport in a carefree environment. His passing has compelled us to rethink the direction of our future.

The road ahead will not be easy. The Association needs a leadership team that can tackle all challenges ahead. My responsibility is to lead this new team, to continue refining our structure, and to further expand lawn bowls to every corner of Hong Kong. Through the establishment of various task forces and the increased engagement and contribution of our councilors, I am encouraged to see that we are making steady and meaningful progress toward these goals.

At present, we face a number of pressing challenges, including increasingly stringent government compliance requirements, a shortage of playing venues, financial pressures, and an aging player base. These are issues we must face honestly and handle together. Therefore, I invite all bowls enthusiasts to join hands and take up the responsibility for the future of this sport.

From this moment forward, let us uphold the true spirit of lawn bowls: to respect the game's etiquette, promote kindness and sportsmanship, set aside our differences, and embrace unity and inclusiveness. Whether on or off the green, let us refrain from confrontation over differing views. In these challenging times, it is only through solidarity that we can ensure lawn bowls remains a sanctuary for the soul—a safe harbour where all feel welcome.

Let us work together to make this vision a reality.

Claudius Lam

President

Report by the Honorary Secretary

David Leung
Honorary Secretary

The 2025 season proved to be another landmark year for lawn bowls in Hong Kong China. Building on the foundation of previous years, the Lawn Bowls Association of Hong Kong, China (LBA) witnessed remarkable growth in participation, outstanding performances on the international stage, and significant organizational developments.

Firstly, participation remained robust across our premier leagues. In 2025, the Premier League attracted 1,817 male players and 1,208 female players, while the Triple League saw 1,680 male players and 1,062 female players. These numbers reflect the continued vitality of our sport.

Secondly, the Hong Kong China Squad achieved outstanding results on the 17th Asian Lawn Bowls Championships held recently in India. The women's team delivered a dominant performance, securing first place in the Pairs, Triples, and Fours championships. The men's team also performed admirably, finishing as runners-up in the Men's Pairs and claiming bronze in the Men's Triples and Fours. On the 15th Asian U25 Lawn Bowls Championships, our youth team talents secured both second and third place in the Mixed Pairs championships.

Locally, we organized 31 National Competitions in 2025, providing ample competitive opportunities for bowlers of all levels.

The Hong Kong International Classic 2025 was held successfully with 44 overseas players from 11 countries competing in the Men's and Women's Singles and Pairs. Warmest congratulations to the Hong Kong bowler, Ms. Dorothy Yu of SBI Lawn Bowls Alumni who has won her second Women's Singles title in the Classic on 16 November, marking three consecutive years of local wins.

We remain committed to the development and professional training for the community of lawn bowling. In 2025, we conducted 119 training courses with 907 participants, along with 6 Fun Days attended by 438 individuals. Officials' development also progressed well: one Coaching course with all 7 participants completed the program, and one Umpire course with three candidates successfully passed the examination.

In 2025, the Council is deeply saddened by the passing of our Ex-President, Mr. Vincent Cheung. To recognize his significant contributions to the sport, the World Bowls has announced to put his name into the Bowls Hall of Fame Inductees recently. World Bowls president Mr. Brett O'Riley addressed that Vincent had developed the Hong Kong Classic as a major international event. And he helped lay the groundwork for what would lead to revolutionary youth development programs and new infrastructure, that have built Asia into the leading growth region for bowls, and an inspiration to new Member Nations and regions globally.

The 2025 Annual General Meeting brought notable changes to the LBA Council. We thank you so much to the outgoing Officers and Councilors for their service and welcome the new leadership for 2025–2027. Among the key changes, Mr. Claudius Lam takes over the office as President, Mr. Alan Chow takes over as Honorary Treasurer from Mr. Roderic Yeung, Mr. Kung Chiu Man takes over as Vice President (Development) from Mr. Heron Lau, Mr. Philip Chan takes over as Vice President (International) from Mr. Timmy Kwong, Ms. Annie Yeung takes over as Vice President (Technical) from Mr. Claudius Lam, Mr. Musa Karamdin and Ms. Harpal Dillon takes over as Councilor from Mr. Kung Chiu Man and Ms. Michelle Chung respectfully.

We also welcomed two new bowling clubs, the TKNA-Hong Kong Tai Po Tung Koon Native Association Limited joined as affiliation member club in September 2025 and the A1LBC-A One Lawn Bowls Club joined as affiliation member club in February 2026. Furthermore, we are pleased to welcome Ms. Michelle Chan as our new Account Assistant in November 2025, strengthening our administrative capacity.

Finally, we extend our most sincere gratitude to the Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau, Leisure and Cultural Services Department, and the Hong Kong Sports Institute. Their continued support and subventions remained invaluable to the LBA and the entire lawn bowls community. Moreover, sincere thanks also extend to the following sponsors for the LBA activities: Zhong Gang Multi-bowls Club, Otsuki Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd., Sing Lok PHARMA Constants Ltd., and SBI-Lawn Bowls Alumni.

Ex-President Vincent Cheung honoured to World Bowls Hall of Fame

World Bowls announced that LBA's ex-President Vincent Cheung was honoured as a Hall of Fame inductee in April 2026, for his significant contributions to the modern establishment of lawn bowls, with service in Hong Kong and Asia which covering almost every aspect of bowls.

World Bowls President Brett O'Riley praises Vincent, "He helped lay the groundwork for what would lead to revolutionary youth development programs and new infrastructure, that have built Asia into the leading growth region for bowls, and an inspiration to new Member Nations and regions globally.

"Vincent dedicated his life to advancing lawn bowls in Hong Kong, leaving behind an extraordinary legacy of passion, leadership and unwavering commitment to the sport. His contributions not only enriched the lawn bowls community but also inspired countless individuals to appreciate the game's beauty and camaraderie."

Vincent will be remembered forever.

Classic Memories 2025

Hong Kong International Bowls Classic 2025 review:

Hong Kong got third gold in a row and Scotland dominates the pairs

After suffered four consecutive typhoons that seriously interrupted plays in the 2024 Hong Kong International Bowls Classic, Mother Nature has been very kind to Hong Kong this year, providing nice weather throughout the nine days tournament to maximise the enjoyment of the participants and spectators.

For the third years in a row, Hong Kong lady bowlers clinched the women's singles title, while the Scottish team dominated the pairs event, becoming only the second country to achieve such result, after the heroic performance of the Philippines team back in 2014.

This year, the Lawn Bowls Association of Hong Kong, China invited all countries involved in the inaugural Bowls World Cup in Malaysia in early November to participate in the annual event. All countries barring Australia, due to a clash with their Nationals, joined. The event also welcomed the return of China, who have not sent a team since the pandemic.

The event was played on the Kowloon side this year, with Club de Recreio, Kowloon Bowling Green Club and Kowloon Cricket Club being used as the hosting venues from November 15-23.

The Event

The Hong Kong International Bowls Classic was first started in 1981 when only the men's pairs was played. From then on, the event was expanded to include the men's singles and in 2008, after the amalgamation of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association and the Hong Kong Ladies Lawn Bowls Association, the women competition was introduced. It is now widely perceived as one of the best outdoor competition in the world.

Men's Singles

Aiden Takarua won New Zealand's first men's singles title in 18 years

Last year's champion Iain McLean from Scotland was not available to defend his title and all eyes was on the highest ranking players including 2023 runners-up Izzat Shameer Dzulkeple (10) from Malaysia, Aiden Takarua (12) from New Zealand and Harry Goodwin (17) from England.

Izzat was knocked out by Sunil Bahadur of India in the second round, while Goodwin also lost to last year's pairs champion Darren Gualtieri from Scotland in the same stage. Gualtieri was then eliminated by Takarua in the third round, who went on to beat Carl Wood from Wales in the following round.

Takarua met Anthony So from the Hong Kong China team in the semi-final. They drawn in the first set 10:10 but Takarua shown his real power in the second set to win 10:2.

In the other half, Welshman Daniel Salmon defeated Boota Singh from Indian Recreation Club, Niksa Benguric from South Africa, Prince Kumar Mahto from India, Gary Prunty from Scotland and Lui Chin Hong from Filipino Club to progress to the final.

Both players played in fast pace in the final and displayed exception drawing power and accurate firing shots. Salmon took the first set 9:4 but Takarua fought back strongly in the second set and won by 11:6.

In the tie-breaker, Takarua kept his composure to draw some excellent shots to take one shot apiece from the first two sets. In the third set, he again draw two close shots and Salmon tried to take them out but in vain.

Takarua is jubilant about his win, "It is an awesome game. Daniel played really well in the first set but once I settled in green in the second set I came right back. Whenever Daniel played well in the first bowl I tried to break it and get a result. And I also got my draw going and put some pressure to him. And when it went to tiebreak it can go either way. I am glad that I got the result."

Salmon though that it was a good final and he played well in the first set but dropped a bit in the following sets, "First set I played solid and I may be relaxed too much in the second set and Aiden also come back very strongly. Then it went to tie-break and it is just not my day."

New Zealand last won the men's singles in 2007 when Mark Watt lifted the title in the last all-men's Classic. The Hong Kong Classic started to organize women's competitions from 2008 onward, after its amalgamation with the Ladies Lawn Bowls Association.

Women's Singles

Local lady shone on international stage for the third time in a row

Another local player won the women's Classic singles for the third year in a row. Dorothy Yu, who represents SBI-Lawn Bowls Alumni Limited, won her second women's single title at the Classic. This is also the fifth women's singles titles won by local ladies in its 14 years of history.

In the last two years, Hong Kong China team's Cheryl Chan and Jenny Miu of Tseung Kwan O Bowling Club also won the title.

Yu, who last won the title 10 years ago, defeated Youth Development Team player Judy Chan, Chinese player Yu Qiaohan, Hilda Tam from Macau, Janice Bell from the USA and Manu Kumari Pal from India to enter the final.

Her opponent in the final is Esme Kruger from South Africa, who beat Audrey Lai (YDT), Becky Tse (Yuen Long Lawn Bowls Club), Alison Lamont (Scotland), Reshma Kumari (India) and Gloria Ha (Hong Kong Football Club) to progress to the final.

In the final, both players were struggling a bit with the green but Kruger performed better in the beginning and won the set 9:7. Yu came back strongly in the second set, taking nine shots in the first five end and finished the end at 9:4.

In the tie-breaker, each side took one shot in the first two ends and Kruger was holding three shots in the third ends, each about half a meter from the jack. Yu drew her last bowl about 30 cm behind the jack to win the game.

Yu feels that the final is a tough game, "The opponent played really well and I needed to think of different way to win it. Typically I am a slow starter so needed more time to get use to the green. Once I adapted to the green condition and its pace, I can manage my drawing, and my performance improved. This reflect on my came back in the second set. And at the end its my draw that bought me the title."

Kruger said she lost a bit of concentration in the second set, "I played well in the first set but lost it a bit in the second set as I am not used to such kind of sunshine and heat. Overall it was an excellent final and Dorothy drew an excellent bowl in the last end to win the game."

Men's Pairs

Scotland successfully defended the men's titles

The Scottish combination of Darren Gualtieri and Gary Prunty was invincible throughout the men's pairs competition.

Gualtieri, who won the pairs with Iain McLean last year, came back with new partner Gary Prunty to defend their title. The team won all 11 games in the round robin stage to progress to the quarter-final, where they met Wales. The Scottish beat Wales 10:9, 10:4 to face Alex Lee and Gary Kwan from the Youth Development Team in the semi-final.

The semi-final was tight, with the Scotland team took the first set 11:3. The YDT kids fought back fiercely and won the second set 11:7 to force the game into tiebreak. However the Scottish were proved too strong for the YDT team and they lost the tie-breaker 5:2.

In the final, Scotland faced England's Harry Goodwin and Dominic McVittie, who defeated New Zealand and Malaysia in the quarter and semi-finals.

Both sides played aggressively in the final, starting with a burnt end in the first end. England gradually gained an upper hand and lead by 7:4 after six ends. In the seventh end they are holding two shots but Prunty played a heavy shot to drive the jack close to the ditch to hold three. McVittie drew to cut it to one but Prunty added another shot to win two.

In the following end Prunty pushed his own bowl to win a shot to tie the score. In the last end when Scotland is holding shots, the England skip burnt it and needed to replay the end. In the replay end, Scotland was again holding a shot and Goodwin played a heavy shot to push the jack into the ditch to hold a shot. Prunty's first shot was in the ditch, his second shot is two meter from the ditch but his last bowl pushes the second bowl to within 60 cm from the ditch. McVittie tried to take away the shot but in vain. The Scottish team won the set 8:7.

In the second set, the Scotland team found the rhythm and opened up a lead of 7:0 after three ends. England fought back to cut the deficit to just two shot after two ends. In the sixth end, Prunty took out England's shot bowl to win three shots. Then each team took four shots in the following two ends with a scoreline of 14:9 into the last end. Both side tried to take the jack and after burning the end once, Scotland took the shot and won the title.

Both Scottish players said they thoroughly enjoyed the game. Prunty said, "The final is a great game and is probably one of the best finals I ever played in. There were highs, lows and the boys are fantastic throughout. I totally enjoy every minute of it."

Talking about a critical moment during the game, he pointed out that the eighth end in the first is especially important as the jack is in the ditch and he needed to draw one closer to the ditch, "The bowl keep going and rolling but fortunately it stopped in front of the ditch and we got the shot. This allowed us to stay in the game and move on."

Gualtieri is happy to win the Classic pairs title with two different partners, "Iain is one of the best players in the world and Gary played a level above for the whole week. He got us over the line in many games and that's amazing." He is ready to defend his title for the third time next year, "If my wife let me come."

McVittie also agreed that the final is a great game, "We played well and I am not sure whether we can play much better. I think we should probably have taken the first set but Gary has played some unbelievable good bowls to win the set. But we enjoy every moment of it."

This is the eighth men's pairs title won by the Scottish team, represents the most titles won by the same country in the 44 years of history in the Hong Kong International Bowls Classic. The next country on the list is England, who won it five times in the past.

Women's Pairs

Local girls are so close....

In the women's pairs competition, Cheryl Chan and Helen Cheung, the newly-crowned World Cup pairs gold medalist from Hong Kong China, pushed all their way to the final but narrowly missed the glory.

The team finished third in their group and defeated South Africa and England in the quarter and semi-finals. They faced Jessica Weir and Alison Lamont from Scotland, the team they defeated during group stage, in the final.

The final was tight and both sides were locked at 4:4 after six ends. In the following end, Hong Kong was holding a shot and the Scottish skip played her last bowl heavy wanting to take the shot out. The bowl was narrow but wicked a bowl in front and diverted to trace the jack towards the group of Scottish bowls. Scotland scored three shots and went to win the set 7:6.

Hong Kong China came back strongly in the second set and won it 10:3 to force the match into tie-break.

In the first tie-breaker, Lamont took away Chan's shot bowl to win three shots. The Scottish team drew another close shot in the second end and opened up a lead of 4:0. In the last end, both sides turned the head several times and the jack was eventually pushed sideways. Cheung tried to take away the opponent's close shot but was missed narrowly. The tie-break finished at 4:2.

Lamont is absolutely thrilled to win it, "We have a close game and I am delighted with our performance in the first. I think we have done enough in the second set though it slipped away from us. The Hong Kong China team played fantastic bowls and it is amazing to win this brilliant tournament."

Weir also echoed her skip's assessment, "We have a close game with Hong Kong China in the group section so I know this was probably going to another close game. Getting the first set is important knowing that you have always got the chance of a tie-break if the second set doesn't quite go our way, and that was the case. In the tie-breaker I think we put the pressure on straight away from the very beginning and this help us to get over the line. It is a really good game and we are delighted to win it."

Hong Kong China team's Cheung and Chan thought that they did not hit top form in the final, "The green is a bit tricky and our adjustment is not up to our normal standard. Their aggressive playing style also created problem for us as we need to build a better head every end. They can easily took our shot out if we have only one bowl around." Despite losing the final, she think the team has achieved the goal set for this tournament.

Chan was the women's singles champion last year and was lost in the third round this year.
